

Nov 17 - Bridge Tournament

Bridge fever was evident on November 17th when more than 60 participants came together to enjoy the open bridge tournament at Commander Hall. After the emcee and main organizer Netto Noronha had everyone seated, Robert Saptel, the Director of the tournament, explained the rules of the game and itemized all his instructions carefully. Winners were broken into two categories - group A for experienced players and group B for up and coming players. TEGSA donated the prize money of $200 to 12 winners from both groups and the winners were:

Alba Saptel/Joe Fernandes; John Baretto/Colin Vaz; Bruno Gomes/Edgar D'Souza; Antonio and Violet Monteiro; Jocelyn Viegas/Nivian Dias; Lourdes Fernandes/Angelica Fernandes. Alba Saptel and Joe Fernandes with the highest overall percentage were presented with a floating trophy donated by Patrick and Kay Pereira. It was a well run game - thanks to Robert and Alba Saptel. Well done to everyone for playing in the spirit of fun and friendship. Everyone had a wonderful evening and many participants expressed an interest to have this tournament more often Stay tuned to the next game of bridge!!
