

Summer Fest at TEGSA
By Sally Coutinho

On June 11, 2010, TEGSA brought in the summer in a special event “The Summer Fest”. It was an evening of fun, frolick and dancing. Most members were dressed in an array of colourful t-shirts, bush-shirts, tank-tops, capris, shorts, colourful hats and sun glasses.

The ladies who took part in the summer fest contest, paraded and danced in a circle in the centre of the hall. The two judges were Martha Menezes and Juliet Matkar. It was a very tough decision for the judges and the best summer dressed lady selected was Delphine Gonsalves. Congratulations Delphine!

The gentlemen were next to parade in their best summer outfits and panama hats. The judges – George Carnerio and Dale MacDonald selected Tony Misquitta as the best summer dressed gent. Congrats Tony!

Then came the Scavenger Hunt – members were given a sheet of paper to write down their treasures. They were scrambling all over the hall to find the 9 hidden items. The first correct answer was submitted by Fatima Lawson. Congrats Fatima!

Vinod Monteiro entertained everyone with his excellent music to line dancing, swing, foxtrot and waltz

Lance Pais catered a delicious snack plate followed by mango ice-cream from Frosty Paradise.

The evening ended with two rounds of bingo. Then, Sheilah D’Souza, our Cultural Secretary, thanked all members for their support and wished everyone a good and safe summer.
